PUBLIC COMMENT:

-Scott Meyers: Here for Trick Or Treating plans. Chamber would like it Saturday, not on Halloween (Monday). Discussion of bedtimes, get more people. Hayes also stated schools do not like Halloween night trick or treating. The youngest kids are most affected. Parents have to get home from work, hard and busy. Would like to make a place for childhood memories. Create a new tradition.

-Brian Hosticka: Here to introduce himself, running for 102nd District Representative, against Curt Vanderwall. He was born in Shelby, raised in Whitehall. Has 2 kids and owned a business. Was a prosecutor and public defender. (Left after presentation)

Ed Hovey: just observing

Scott Meyers: Street signs? They need to be replaced. Explained this has been worked on and waiting for OCRC. Asked about ORV. Council was going to discuss. Street lights, put in bulbs – 12. One pole is totally dead. He can not do the 2 poles at the south end of the village. Spoke of talking to Blackmer for the pole at the park. Austin Cox is working on the well. Trunk or Treat at 5 – downtown.
